motoring offences

We recognise the importance of your driving licence. Our Motoring Offences team, at Blake Laphorn solicitors, has considerable experience in defending motorists who face losing their licence due to road traffic offences. We have a national reputation for defending motorists and members of the team have appeared in the national press and on television following high-profile cases. Some recent examples of the team's work include:

- speed limit problems - Barry Culshaw's client has speeding offence dropped due to road sign issues
- revocation of driving licence - Philip Somarakis ensures client's driving licence reinstated by DVLA after successful appeal
