Solutions for all involved in the recruitment process and the world of agency and contract workers

As leading advisers to the recruitment sector in the UK, Europe and beyond, our Recruitment group delivers proactive and user friendly advice to a wide range of organisations involved in staffing and recruitment. We can provide guidance on regulation of the recruitment sector, on tax regimes and on whether temporary, contract agency workers and consultants have employment rights.

In addition, we provide advice to head-hunters and other agencies that specialise in placing permanent staff. We are also regularly lead advisers on the legal, tax, commercial and VAT aspects of outsourcing the procurement and management of resource by major institutions.
